Information Technology – Database Administrator
Required Competencies

Required Competencies
Database Design and Structure   Organizes data effectively into a structure (relational or non) to ensure that it can be accessed and analyzed quickly.
Database Maintenance   Monitors the servers' or processes' health and performance and performs necessary maintenance to ensure a high level of functionality.
Database Security   Executes company security standards consistently.
Database Management   Oversees databases through multiple product lifecycles, including installation and upgrading.
Database Query Structure   Writes simple to complex queries in the database's preferred language, troubleshoots queries, and tunes queries for best performance.
Troubleshooting   Performs problem resolution and root cause analysis and recommends and implements preventive techniques.
Prioritization   Manages multiple tasks and shifting priorities.
Confidential Information Handling   Ensures the privacy of sensitive data at all times.